CHAMPS CRACK RECORDS !

THIRTY athletes established new WA State records during the four-day championships which concluded March 17th - but star of the games was M75 Syd Coleman.

Three Australian records fell to him - the most startling improvement coming in the Hammer, where Syd bettered Victorian John Fraser's mark by almost four metres, pushing out to 37.38m. What's more, Syd's been reaching 40m plus in practice, so more can be expected!

His championships were a total success; seven events, seven state records!

WA received congratulations on our

a) Newsletter;

b) Manner of presenting list of members.

Notice for next meeting "that men 30 be pre-vets from 1992-93 season."

14.3

Moved that "The new committee consider the viability of offering the opportunity to a small group (2-3) of walkers to assist the race organisers with the walking programme for the Sunday runs.

Moved Kath Penton, seconded Brian Danby, carried.

14.4

Brian Foley addressed the meeting regarding the AAWA winter season due to begin on 20th April. We need to organise our teams for this year, and also be aware of our commitment to organise several of the events i.e. May 11th. Last year the mens team was 4th of 7 in the A grade and the woman's teams 5th out of 7 in the A grade.

The Time Trials were down 20 to 30% on the previous season. After a very close vote it was decided to retain Wednesday night meetings rather than Thursdays. Discussion ensued regarding various means to have extra field events, particularly after Christmas.

It was also suggested that the Time Trials Championship be the best 6 events out of those attempted. Referred to the Committee for consideration.

14.5

It was requested that the 7.30am start be retained for Sunday race meetings after Christmas. The meeting closed at 8.58pm.

RUNNING BRIEFS

BUNBURY

Bunbury bound ? Don't forget the Vets gather for Saturday Lunch at the Rose, 12 noon, Saturday May 4.

REABOLD

Members are welcome at the Reabold Hill 6k cross country, Saturday May 11 at 2pm - organised by us for the Association.

MYALUP

Early warning - Myalup Pines is the venue for our running camp - Feb 28/29 March 1, in 1992. The club has booked four excellent cottages; capacity 40 people.

PRIZES

Lots of prizes - including vets categories - are on offer in a Marathon Club half marathon; St. Georges Terrace start, September 15. Details, contact WAMC.

DIRECTORS

Race directors - a revised guide will be issued eventually, but in the meantime please take note of Bob Sammell's suggestions for presentation of race results. We know there's a lot to do - but if results are presented well - and on time, it helps the handicapper, and the Vetrun team. Every member will benefit too, if results are easier to understand and evaluate. Bob's letter was published in Vetrun 220, February 1991, page 10.

NEXT MONTH

Pressure on space in this issue means some copy has been held over until May. Results (in hand - thank you directors) held over are Millers Run, Lorna Lochlan's Around the Houses, and Margaret Warren's Joondalup.

Also in store is Jim Greenfield's (collected) thoughts on how 'Athlete's Sexual Drive is at Risk.' Bet you can't wait for that one.

QUIZ FOR KAREN

Members might like to support the WAMC quiz night - Shenton Park Hotel, May 15, 8pm; details from Jim Ellis (447 5030).

Finance stopped Karen Gobby running the London Marathon, though selected for our Cup team, and the Marathon Club is trying to help her chances of reaching Barcelona next year.

The Vets have contributed a $100 Runner's World voucher to the quiz.

SOCIAL SUCCESS

Our bowling night in March was right on target - everyone there wants a repeat.

Any ideas for another event? Call Marge Forden with suggestions. We feel that social events will help more members know each other better - and expand the total enjoyment of the club. Dancing at the Pagoda? A Bush Dance? Club Picnic? Boat Trip?

New President Joan Pellier suggests its time to revive our own quiz night which would also help raise funds. Tentatively, it's planned for the spring.

I think these are the complete results. I apologise if I have missed anybody out. Everybody had a great time whether we won medals or not and I would like to encourage more members to travel to Tasmania next Easter.

LETTERS

2 Tanjil Court
MT WAVERLEY
VIC. 3149

Dear Vic,

It was with deep regret that I had to leave the club last January after 14 months to return to Melbourne.

The friendship and fellowship that is such an integral part of the W.A. Vets will be difficult to replace. Sunday mornings will not be the same again for me, but I continue to read with interest the Vetrun and be reminded of all those terrific and fun courses.

To jog along with Frank Usher and Margaret Warren, to reflect on the parentage of Basil Worner or just to crack jokes with my mate Gordon Florance for 5k then stagger the rest of the course totally breathless will remain great memories. Although we were not the quickest, someone has to be at the back of the pack to make the guys up front look good.

To Bob Schickert and all members of the Vets, thank you and good luck.
Kindest regards
Peter Nicoll

DON'T WAIT !

It was good to have some contentious points raised at the AGM. It was also heartening that so many members were in favour of retaining Vetrun in the present form.

On behalf of everyone involved in the production, thanks for your vote of confidence.

But, if you've got a beef, don't wait for the next AGM. Let us know, preferably in person. It's much easier to sort out queries face-to-face. Rumour, and reported hearsay, cause too much strife.

Treasurer Bill Crellin adds:

"Members are encouraged to bring their comments, views, etc before a committee member regularly, throughout the year - either verbally or in writing. This way the committee can discuss the matter, take appropriate action, or make decisions as necessary."

MEET THE VETRUM

Fred Hagger

KEEPING Fred Hagger on track is tougher than steering 108 runners through the twists and turns of the Kings Park 8K course.

"Did I tell you about the time I met Sophia Loren?"

"No Fred, can we talk about running?"

"It was in 1946, on the docks in Naples, there were all these starving children..."

So we talked about Sophia Loren, a far more interesting topic than PB's. We also talked about how he shared a bag of sweets with Princess Margaret whom he met as a child in a Northampton, while collecting crows eggs and bluebells. Finally we got on to running.

After his first laminectomy twelve years ago, Fred was advised to walk. Walking led to running and two laminectomies and ten spinal fusions later, he still runs when he can. He prefers distance running and has completed twelve marathons and six half marathons. His best time for a marathon is 4 hours 3 minutes.

The highlight of his running life was the 1985 London Marathon. Conditions were perfect, three degrees, a clear day, no wind and the route wound its way through historical London and over Westminster Bridge for the finish.

The discovery of three leukaemia sufferers in the race reinforced his approach to fitness and life-style, just as, earlier, his own injuries had.

He believes it's important to set a goal then work realistically towards accomplishing the goal. When training for a marathon he covers 80-90 kms a week. However, the final achievement requires mental effort, he says. It's determination and a positive attitude that leads to the goal, and such an approach can overcome physical limitations.

Overcoming age limitations started early for Fred Hagger. He falsified his age to join the Royal Navy just before his 17th birthday, and served on various vessels, including frigates and submarines in World War II. A year ago Fred was awarded a medal by the USSR for his presence aboard an RN escort for merchant ships making the extremely hazardous supply run from Reykjavik to Murmansk.

Fred left the navy at the end of the war, earning his living as a bricklayer, and in 1955 came to Australia "where the weather was kinder." He worked in the building trade until nine years ago, and has had a lifelong commitment to the Labour/Labor party and the trades union movement.

In the retirement he reads, runs, and would like to write. He is fascinated by the many interesting people he's met (and is probably quite oblivious to the fun and pleasure he adds to so many Sunday morning runs, as one of the vets own most fascinating characters).

"I'd like to put some of these experiences down on paper," said Fred.

He would, of course, reserve the writer's licence to embellish the truth!

There are other ambitions, or course. His London Marathon run was a deeply moving event and it's something he'd like to repeat. Fred's completed three triathlons; and the Veterans triathlon this month (April) is another target.

He's the world's worst gardener, but an all-round sports fan. Soccer's the top, but Fred will stoop to watch Australian Rules when desperate.

He joined the Vets ten years ago, along with his Saturday morning running group of Mary Robinson, Alan Croxford and John Mad-dison. Like so many others he finds club members consistently helpful and supportive.

"There's a terrific spirit in this club", he said, "It's a group of people who, when they put on their running shoes on a Sunday morning are all equals, even though they're from all walks of life.

"I'd like to take this chance to thank them all for their friendship over the years- and especially for all the kindness when I was in hospital."
