

NPIRE Travel

World Masters Athletics Championships – Toronto 2020

The countdown is on with a little over 14 months to go until the WMA Championships start!

We are aware that you are seasoned travellers and have been to many of the AMA and WMA Championships in your careers; therefore, you are in a great position to know what you want, don't want, like and don't like in your personalised tours. That is where NPIRE Travel are a great option for you, as we meet your needs and pay attention to the little things that will make your tour memorable, affordable and unique.

It was lovely to meet so many of you at the AMA Championships, including our State Secretaries as well as Pam and Mark who joined us from New Zealand! From talking with you, we know that you enjoy tours that incorporate some of the following elements:

- being with your friends in groups
- balance between rest days, event days and social activities
- central meeting points that are close to the event locations and transport
- appreciate the option of self-contained and hotel style accommodation
- exploring sights through optional day trips and post event packaged tours
- having one person to communicate with regarding your travel

NPIRE Travel are an ATAS accredited leading group travel company operating in a high-performing environment, loaded with travel, sporting and educational experts that can perform and deliver the 200+ organisational facets required to pull together your ground-breaking travel experience.

Exclusive Offer

We are committed to providing you with a stress-free experience - which begins right now and continues until you are safely back on Australian soil.

We are delighted to offer you a lifetime 5% discount on all travel (flights, accommodation and ground transport) when you book through NPIRE Travel for your WMA experience and beyond for AMA, Indoor, Outdoor and Oceania Championships and more.

As expected, accommodation is selling fast in Toronto so please do not hesitate to contact us today with your group size and requirements. We look forward to working with you in the lead up to the WMA Championships; please contact me via phone or email to discuss your travel preferences.

Don't just chase your dreams... run them down!

May the course be with you,
